

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

11 DARRELL HUNTER,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

15 CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO, et al.,

16 Defendants.

17 Case No. 11-4911 JSC

18
19 ORDER RE: JOINT LETTER BRIEF
(Dkt. No. 60)

20 Pending before the Court is a Joint Letter Brief regarding the scope of permissible deposition
21 questions filed October 19, 2012. (Dkt. No. 60). The Court finds this matter suitable for disposition
22 without a hearing. See Civil Local Rule 7-1(b). Having carefully considered the letter brief and the 23 relevant legal authority, the Court finds that Plaintiff's proposed areas of inquiry are appropriate in part.

24 Plaintiff seeks leave to question Defendants Nuti And Reymundo at their respective
25 depositions regarding two matters in their personnel files. As a general matter, a party must respond
26 to questions at a deposition except "when necessary to preserve a privilege, to enforce a limitation
27 ordered by the court, or to present a motion under Rule 30(d)(3)." Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 30(c)(2). The 28

1 first ground is the only one applicable here. Defendants object to Plaintiff's proposed areas of inquiry
2 as invading the privacy rights of the Defendants.

3 The Court finds that the privacy rights of the Defendants are adequately covered by the 4 Stipulated Protective Order in this action. The Protective Order provides that "protections conferred
5 by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material ... [and] ... (3) any testimony,
6 conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material."
7 (Dkt. No. 23 ¶ 3.) Paragraph 5.2(b) of the Protective Order details the precise mechanism by which 8 deposition testimony may be designated as confidential and subject to the protective order. (Id. at ¶ 9 5.)

10 Accordingly, the Court shall not preclude Plaintiff from inquiring into those subject matters
11 outlined in the joint letter. If Defendants are asked to testify regarding their personnel matters,
12 Defendants may designate that testimony as confidential in accordance with the Protective Order.
13 However, Plaintiff's inquiry is temporally limited to matters prior to December 7, 2010 in accordance 14 with the parties' prior agreement that this would be the relevant time period.
